UND ALUMNI ASSOCIATION FAMILY VOLUNTEER
CAMP HELPS AT FPC, SB

For the second year, around 20 volunteers a day helped at FPC, SB from 9:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. for four days. Coordinated by Wendy Henry, our Executive Assistant, Wendy, Staci, and Phyllis compiled a list of jobs to be done. They included:

Cleaning the kitchen, made spaghetti casseroles, scrub tables and chairs in the social hall, organize the silverware drawers in the kitchen, made up the birthday cake packages for Phyllis, cleaned toys and rooms upstairs in education wing, cleaned the pastor's office, brought boxes up that will be taken to be shredded on August 14, cleaned and organized the youth room in west end, cleaned the mechanical room in the east wing, cleaned the Unity Garden, helped RMHS weed.

ART BEAT

Saturday, August 15, 2026

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED!

Art Beat, downtown South Bend's largest annual event, will be held Saturday, August 15, 2026, from 11:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m. During Art Beat the streets are filled with culinary, performing, and visual artists as well as local not-for-profit groups for a day-long celebration.

Malawi Matters' application for a booth has been approved and our fee is paid. It will basically be in the same location as the last few years - number 163 - near the corner of Jefferson Street and St. Louis Boulevard (in front of the Howard Park Community Building). This event offers an opportunity to sell items from Malawi such as Africa Bags, handmade paper cards, and colorful chitenje cloth dolls and frames – plus tell the story of our ongoing work in “The Warm Heart of Africa.”

MMI needs volunteers to fill the shifts. If you can help, please contact Phyllis Wezeman
